

CALL FOR PAPERS

2nd International Conference on CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN ECONOMICS, MANAGEMENT AND BUSINESS 2nd CIEMB 2019

November 26-27, 2019, Hanoi - Vietnam

Introduction

The 2nd International Conference on Contemporary Issues in Economics, Management and Business (2nd CIEMB 2019) will be organized by National Economics University in Hanoi, Vietnam. The aim of the conference is to create a forum for scholars from different academic fields of economics, business and management to exchange and present their research. The conference will provide a platform for debates on contemporary issues of aforementioned fields, supporting strategies to stimulate sustainable worldwide growth and development.

ISI and SCOPUS Indexed Allied Journals Publication Opportunity

All full papers will be issued in the conference proceedings with ISBN and available online. Good quality papers have chances to be published in the Special Issue of Journal of Economics & Development (published by Emerald).

The authors of all accepted papers will also have chances to be published in our following allied ISI and SCOPUS indexed journal publication.

Keynotes Speakers

Professor Robin Mason, the University of Birmingham, United Kingdom

Professor Robin Mason joined the University of Birmingham (top 100 universities globally) in March 2016, as Pro-Vice-Chancellor (International) and Vice-President. Robin moved to Birmingham after seven years at the University of Exeter, where he was first Professor of Economics, then appointed Dean of the University’s Business School in 2011, and Pro-Vice-Chancellor and Executive Dean in 2015. He had previously been the Eric Roll Professor of Economics and Head of Economics at the University of Southampton.

Robin is a fellow of the Centre for Economic Policy Research, and a decision-making member of both the Competition and Markets Authority (formerly the Competition Commission) and the Financial Conduct Authority. He has acted as advisor to a number of regulators, in both the UK and internationally; and to a number of private-sector companies worldwide. He sits on the Accreditation Board of EQUIS, one of the two major international accreditation bodies for business schools.

His academic research concentrates on how firms respond strategically to uncertainty; and, more broadly, the incentives faced by economic agents in situations when they have imperfect information about their environment.

Professor Dominic Barton, Managing Director of McKinsey & Company

Professor Dominic Barton was the Managing Director of McKinsey & Company from 2009 to 2018. Before becoming managing partner, Dominic served as McKinsey's chairman in Asia from 2004 to 2009. He also headed McKinsey's office in Korea from 2000 to 2004.

Dominic is the Chancellor of the University of Waterloo, the Chair of the Canadian Minister of Finance's Advisory Council on Economic Growth and the Chair of the Seoul International Business Advisory Council. He is also a Trustee of the Brookings Institution, a member of the Singapore Economic Development Board's International Advisory Council, and a member of the boards of Memorial Sloan Kettering in New York City and the Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada.

Dominic has authored more than 80 articles. He is a coauthor, with Roberto Newell and Greg Wilson, of Dangerous Markets: Managing in Financial Crises (Wiley & Sons, 2002), the author of China Vignettes: An Inside Look at China (Talisman, 2007), a co-author, with Dezso Horvath and Matthias Kipping, of Re-Imagining Capitalism: Building a Responsible Long-Term Model (Oxford University Press, 2016) and a coauthor, with Ram Charan and Dennis Carey, of Talent Wins: The New Playbook for Putting People First (Harvard Business Review Press, 2018).
