In 2017, RMIT University Vietnam is proud to award 2 full Scholarships for females enrolling into one of our three PhD Programs: PhD in Business, PhD in Management and PhD in Engineering (Electrical and Electronics Engineering).

Value and duration

Applicants who are successful in receiving a scholarship are not required to pay tuition fees for the maximum duration of their candidature. The standard duration of a research doctorate scholarship is three years full-time. Candidates may apply for an extension of up to six months subject to satisfactory progress and School's approval.

Eligibility

To be considered for a scholarship, candidates must have:

- The academic entry requirement of a Master by Research Degree
- English language requirements of an IELTS 6.5 or equivalent
- A strong PhD research proposal - candidates with support from supervisors will receive priority

Applicants do not hold one of the above qualifications will only be considered for a scholarship if they have previous research publications or significant research experience.

Key dates and how to apply

Applicants applying for a scholarship should submit the application together with the PhD application documents and either send them to phd.enquiries@rmit.edu.vn (as scanned documents) or submit them in person to:

PhD Programs Administration, Research Office
Room 2.3.20, RMIT Vietnam, 702 Nguyen Van Linh Blvd, District 7, Ho Chi Minh City.

Main scholarship round:

- 31 July 2017 - Deadline for scholarship applications
- 25 September 2017 - Successful applicants contacted
- Successful applicants are required to commence in semester three, October 2017

We look forward to receiving scholarship application from your institution.
